BULLET SANG WRAPPED IN FLAME AT THE STAKE JOINED IN ST. LOUIS

And Young Reveler Fell
Dead on Floor.

TRIED TO STOP DANCE.

Fatal Shot Was Fired
During a General Fight.

Death was a guest at a dance given Saturday night in Pike county. Lewis Downs was his partner. The scene of the occurrence was on Donaldson creek twelve miles from Oades.

The revelry was at its height, when, according to reports, Downs and a crowd of friends swooped down on the place. They were drunk and attempted to break up the dance.

A general fight followed in which blows were passed and pistols discharged.

Downs engaged Paul Baker in a desperate struggle which ended by the latter falling on Downs.

The bullet entered the young man's abdomen and went entirely through his body, and he fell to the floor. He lived only a few moments after he was wounded.

Both Downs and Baker are members of good families. The latter is a son of Mr. H. T. Baker, a well known Confederate veteran, who was captured with Jefferson Davis.

Young Baker has surrendered to the proper authorities at Oades. He claims self-defense.

CO. D. IN GOOD SHAPE

Equipments Will Be Received This Week.

MR. BASSETT IS MAJOR.

From Wednesday's daily.

Co. D. had a good drill at the armory last night. The last drill before going to Frankfort to attend the inauguration will be held Friday night. The company will leave for the capital some time next Monday. A letter from Col. Smith to Capt. Tandy states that all the necessary equipments will be sent to the young soldiers this week.

Gov. Beckham has appointed Mr. E. B. Bassett major of the Third Kentucky regiment, and as he is popular among the soldiers of all the companies, it is likely that he will be regularly elected to the position when an election is held. He will accompany the regiment to Frankfort. Maj. Bassett was connected with the State guard several years and formerly was captain of the local company. He made an excellent officer, and is thoroughly qualified for the position of Major. Lieut. Col. Henry will also attend the inauguration in his official capacity.

On D., under Capt. Tandy, has become one of the best drilled and disciplined companies in the State, and the boys will make a fine showing next Tuesday at Frankfort.

Many persons have had the experience of Mr. Peter Sherman, of North Street, N. H., who says, "I suffered from chronic indigestion, but Kodol Dyspepsia Cure made a well man of me." It digests what you eat and is a certain cure for dyspepsia and every form of stomach trouble. It gives relief at once even in the worst cases, and can't help but do you good. For sale by R. O. Hardwick.

Prices are way down on clothing, furnishing goods, shoes, etc., at Moayon's Big Store.

THIRD REGIMENT NOT OUT.

Col. Henry Had Authority To Muster Out Louisville Legion.

A Frankfort dispatch says:

The records of the department of the Adjutant General here do not bear out the statement of former Adjutant General Olliver that the Third Kentucky regiment had been mustered out of the service by Gov. Bradley, and that Lieut. Col. Henry, of that regiment, had no authority to muster out the Louisville Legion.

The records here show that both Olliver and Bradley recognized Col. Smith and other officers of the Third regiment as such officers long after the time at which Olliver says the regiment was mustered out of service.

Mr. Radford And Miss
Sells Take Nuptial Vows.

COME HERE NEXT MAY

A marriage in which many Christian county people are interested was solemnized Wednesday afternoon in St. Louis. Mr. James A. Radford and Miss Sells were united in the holy bonds of wedlock at the home of the bride, No. 3780 Delmar Boulevard. Rev. Dr. Leacock, an Episcopal minister, performed the ceremony. Only relatives and a few intimate friends witnessed the impressive service. Capt. Cyrus Radford, of New York, and Mrs. William Pasmore, the groom's brother and sister, were present. Immediately after the marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Radford left for New Orleans where they will spend a few days and then continue the bridal itinerary through a number of Southern and Western States. The balance of the winter will be spent in the City of Mexico. They will come to Mr. Radford's beautiful country home "Idylwynde" to reside the first of May. The bride is a handsome and attractive young lady. She has visited Mr. Radford's sister here and is very popular in society circles. She is the daughter of the late Luke Sells, a leading wholesale merchant of St. Louis.

No man stands higher in the estimation of the people of this region than the late William T. Radford, a prominent and wealthy citizen. His friends are legion, and they will delight to join the New Era in wishing him and his charming wife great and increasing happiness and prosperity.

Interesting Development in Case of Recently Captured Moonshiner.

Deputy United States Marshal T. C. and Deputy Internal Revenue Collector Overby captured W. T. Wells and George Lear some time ago in Muhlenberg county for running a moonshine distillery. They were placed in jail at Owensboro and a few days ago J. A. Healy, a neighbor, tried to make a bond to secure their release. He was unsuccessful and is now
